

ALEXANDRIA TRAFFIC
VIOLATORS PUNISHED

Fourteen Drivers Prosecuted as Warning for Future—Liquor
Elections Ordered.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 17.—Fourteen drivers of vehicles were cited to appear in the police court today to answer charges of violating the traffic rules and regulations. A majority of those cited forfeited $1 collateral each and those who put in appearance were fined $1 each. In each case the charge made was making improper turns at street corners.

Among the cases was that of William Jackson, colored, a cart driver. According to the testimony he made the wrong turn at King and Washington streets.

In his defense Jackson said: "Judge your honor, I turned the way in order to get home soon as I was taking medicine, and that was my prerogative. It is my prerogative to fine you one dollar," said the court. Jackson paid it and departed.

City Sgt. R. H. Cox today received a communication from Chief Clerk James H. Hayes, jr., office of the secretary of the Commonwealth, directing him to call a special election on State-wide prohibition on September 22. Notices to the foregoing effect were posted this afternoon at the various voting places in the city. From now on there will be an active fight on both sides. In this election, probably, will win out by a large majority.

Only ninety citizens here signed the petition to the governor to call a State-wide election.

In Alexandria county a total of 230 voters signed the petition.

Charles Le Hew has been appointed ticket agent at the union passenger railway station to succeed his father, William G. Le Hew, who died Saturday last. Mr. Le Hew served under his father in the ticket office.

A number of cases of typhoid fever are reported in the city. Several fever patients are now at the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

ROCKVILLE.

Fishback, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, were married last evening, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Peter M. Boyden, of New Market, Md., formerly rector of the Episcopal church at Onley. Immediately afterward the young couple departed for their honeymoon trip. They will live in Los Angeles.

New suits have been filed in the circuit court against Helen M. Best against Florence J. Appleby and others, for sale of real estate; George M. Linticum against Grover T. Linticum, on note; Sallie L. Walker against Washington Grove Association, for redemption of ground rent; Robert H. Walker against Washington Grove Association, for specific performance of contract.

Saved by Doctors,
Takes Poison Again

"Tired of Being Called a Bum," Writes Spanish War Nurse
in Farewell Statement.

LAWRENCE A. WOODRING.

Lawrence A. Woodring, a Spanish-American war nurse, who was saved from death from bichloride of mercury poisoning last December by Emergency Hospital physicians, is receiving the attention today of Casualty Hospital doctors who are trying to counteract the effects of a rat blaucit which he says he ate with suicidal intent.

Two hours previous to being found unconscious at Sixth street and North Carolina avenue southeast, late yesterday, Woodring entered the office of The Times and told a reporter who had done a slight service for him some time ago, that he was "going away."

He left a written statement, asking that it be published.

Two hours later the Casualty Hospital physicians were treating him for poison. Woodring is speechless, perhaps from the effects of the rat blaucit, information of which he wrote for the hospital physicians when restored to consciousness. He said he wanted to die and expressed regret that the doctors would be unsuccessful in their attempts to save him.

Tortured by Moros.

Woodring came to Washington last November and sought employment as a nurse. He was suffering from a paralysis of speech, due, he said, to being tortured by Moros in the Philippines. On December 3, he took four tablets of bichloride of mercury, which defeated the effects of the poison. His power of speech also returned in response to treatment there. After recuperating, Woodring procured temporary employment at the Central Union Mission, and later went to the post hospital at Fort Monroe, where he was employed for a time as a nurse. Coming back to Washington, Woodring says, he was unable to procure steady employment and decided to "finish it."

Woodring said he faced death five times and is now "up against it a sixth time." As a soldier of fortune in the Philippines, he was employed as a nurse. He was victorious over a siege of cholera, was shot twice and left to die, and finally was attacked by the Moros. He was imprisoned as an American spy and put in the stocks. He said he was struck with the butt of a gun and his vocal cords were thus paralyzed. His fifth time to face death was in December, when he took the bichloride poison.

In Woodring's intended ante-mortem statement left with The Washington Times he requests that Mrs. Allan K. Capron, 218 California street northwest, be notified of his death, and that she be thanked for the Gospel Mission for kind treatment.

Tired of Being Called Bum.

His declaration to "finish it" is as follows:

"I came here to Washington to see about some things and lost all I had. I tried to end it all. Some came to my rescue. They sent me to the Soldiers' Home. Now I never was a pauper. They call us Government paupers. After serving my country and doing my duty, what do I get? I have had some work, but very poor pay. Some did not pay me at all. I have tried everywhere for something to do. They all say I am too small or too light.

"Now I am going to finish it this time for sure. I take this to The Times of today. I am tired of being called a bum. I owe one man here some board, too. That is all I owe. I have done work, but cannot get my pay for it. Yet they say 'wait.' I have not got it, so what can a man do? I never was out of money before at all. The Spanish war veterans have done what they could to help me, and so did Congressmen Bailey of Pennsylvania, and Nelson of Wisconsin, and Ainsy of Pennsylvania. I have applied for a pension, too. You see there is no kindness among men any more. If you have money you are all right; if not, you can starve. So I never did ask for anything and I can not. I will die first before I steal or steal. Please tell Mrs. Allan K. Capron, 218 California street northwest, that I am not here any more. I will not catch me this time. Good-by."

"LAWRENCE A. WOODRING."

"P. S.—They treated me very good at the Gospel Mission, too, but there are drawbacks, too. I will not say what. Good-by. You may think I am crazy, but I am not. So, good-by, from

"LAWRENCE A. WOODRING."

Anacostia, Hyattsville

ANACOSTIA.

The State of Maryland is to make many improvements in Prince George county and within the next few days the highway bridge leading to La Plata, will be closed to traffic. Traffic from there to this place must be by way of Congress Heights or Forestville.

Lewis B. Cooke has disposed of his feed business on Nichols avenue near V street to Washington business men. Mr. Cooke has been in business in Anacostia for the past ten years. He also has a feed store in this suburb and a grocery store in the city.

The Rev. Dr. C. M. Lister, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League for Maryland and the Delaware Peninsula, was the speaker last evening at the temperance mass meeting conducted by the Anacostia Federation for Social Service. Tonight Senator Vardaman, of Mississippi and Dr. Henry T. Cousins, pastor of the Anacostia Baptist church will speak.

Members of Electa Chapter O. E. S. will go on Monday next to Chesapeake Beach for the annual excursion of the chapter.

HYATTSVILLE.

A great many complaints relative to the noises caused by the engines of automobiles and motorcycles have been made to the mayor and common council and the matter will be taken up by that body at its next regular meeting. It is possible that an ordinance will be adopted regulating it.

E. Harvey Smith, manager of the Hyattsville baseball team, has arranged for a field day at Zantinger's Park on August 1, for the benefit of the team, the events to start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The program will consist of 50, 100, 200 and 400-yard dashes, one-mile relay race between two Hyattsville teams, a three-mile race closed to Hyattsville entries. This course will be measured around the park. There will also be a fifty-yard dash for ladies, and a fifty-yard dash for girls under fifteen years of age, and the ladies will have a chance to throw a baseball for distance.

The Hyattsville baseball team yesterday afternoon defeated the team from Bayview by the score of 15 to 3, the local team making sixteen hits off Turner, while Hickey, of Hyattsville, allowed the visitors but five blows.

Otway B. Zantinger has sold his house on Wine avenue to J. Sewall, of Washington, who will take possession about the 1st of August.

C. P. Jones, of Laurel, last night asked Deputy Sheriff Garrison to accompany him in his automobile for a short distance beyond College Park on the Washington-Baltimore boulevard because he had been warned of the appearance of footpads. Garrison accompanied Jones, but was unable to discover any highwaymen. Jones and his family were passing along the edge of Hyattsville toward their home in Laurel when they were stopped by a party in another machine and told of attempt at a hold up. Jones decided to take no chances and returned to Hyattsville, sent his family home in an electric car, and hunted up Garrison.

The Sunday school of the First Baptist Church has selected August 1, as the day for its annual picnic.

Rain interfered with the lawn fête given by the ladies of the First Baptist Church on the lot at the head of the Johnson and Wine avenues.

Good Time Now
For Blood Health

The Skin is Working Hard to Cleanse the Body

Take Full Advantage of This

When you perspire freely so that your blood is assisted by S. S. S. the famous blood purifier.

The action of S. S. S. in its rush to the surface of the body causes the process of nutrition to so prepare all those impurities in the blood that they are easily expelled. And as fast as they are removed new materials from a purified blood stream are supplied to make a clear, smooth, outer skin of the texture.

It is in the summer time, by the aid of S. S. S. that you naturally and quickly get rid of those harmful irritants that gather to cause rheumatism, catarrh, blood itching, eczema, boils and other forms of impure blood.

In a splendidly illustrated book, "What the Mirror Tells," you will learn about the wonders of the skin and what is required to keep it healthy. But first get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store and then write for the book to The Swift Specific Co., 104 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Beware of any attempt to sell you something in place of S. S. S.
